$5.00 Free

And 3 Special Prizes

Our class in puzzle solving is increasing. It was exceedingly difficult, this week, to decide to whom the prizes should be awarded. After long and careful deliberation, the puzzle committee reported the following awards, which we hope will meet with everybody's approval:

THE WINNERS ARE:

The 50c prizes are won by:

Marguerite Prothro, 1621 Wyoming St. Miss Flora Krause, 906 N. Stanton St. Lee Roy Johnston, 505 Mesa Ave. Thelma Bellard, 1015 E. Boulevard.

Miss Lois Bonney, 716 N. Santa Fe St., wins the First Scott B. Williams, P. O. Box 410, El Paso, Texas, wins the Second Prize of $1.00.

The special prizes are won by:

The 2-pound box of McCullough's El Paso Made Candy by Andria Sweet, 1123 N. Oregon St. The 5 tickets to the Crystal Theater by Joe Charles, 103 F Boulevard. The 5 tickets to the Wigwam Theater by Eleta Walsh, 514 N. Stanton St.

Winners will please call at the office of the El Paso Gas & Electric Co., in the Bassett Bldg.

ADDITIONAL PRIZES THIS WEEK

In addition to the $2.00 1st Prize, $1.00 2nd Prize and four 50c Prizes—totaling $5.00—we add three special prizes. McCullough's Confectionery will award a special prize of a 2-pound box of "McCullough's El Paso-Made Candy." Manager Winch will give 5 paid admissions to the Crystal Theater and 5 to the Wigwam Theater.

The Puzzle Picture This Week

The previous puzzles have been somewhat easy, but the one this week will, we believe, keep you all guessing. The blank spaces are to be filled. We can only inform you that the appropriate words contains each four letters. In case no one supplies all four spaces correctly, prizes will be awarded to the nearest correct answers.

Rules of the Contest

Every Herald reader is entitled to send in an answer. We ask that you use a postal card in answering. However, letters will be accepted. In addition to supplying the missing words, we ask that you write a definition of "gas heater." Awards will be based on correction of solution to puzzle and originality of definition. Send or bring your answer to this office before 5 oclock Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 26th.

SPECIAL NOTE-All answers mailed must be addressed to "Puzzle Dept., El Paso Gas & Electric Co., Bassett

STATE CLOSES IN

THE LAWSON CASE

The state announced its rest Saturday morning in the case of Frank Lawson, the negro wno is on trial in the 34th district court before judge J. R. Harper on the charge of murdering his wife, Druscilla Shelton Lawson, July 25. The defence will probably conclude Saturday afternoon or night, but it has not been definitely determined when the argument will be made.

The jury which was secured from four venires, is composed of J. P. De-loney, F. H. Krome, Henry F. Easter, Sam Schwartz, T. G. Tankin, I. Stevens, S. Lapqwski, J. H. Johnson, H. C. Bally. C. Gray, C. E. Heffler and J. B. Mc

The state introduced witnesses who testified that Lawson on July 25, last, wounded his motherinlaw, Mrs. Maria Shelton, by shooting her in the head, inflicting a scalp wound; that following, he shot and killed his wife, one bullet entering the woman's left side and the other her head; also that Shelton pointed the revolver at postmaster J. A. Smith, who took the gun away from

Lawson and his wife had been mar ried about 11 months, but she had left her husband a few weeks previous to the killing. The state is asking the infliction of the death penalty. The de fence pleads manslaughter.
